

TOP

REASONS TO WORK AT PUBLISHERS PRINTING COMPANY

1

BENEFITS

Health, Dental, Vision, flexible spending, Disability, Life Insurance, College Tuition Reimbursement, 401K, Vacation and Personal Days only name a few benefits we have to offer at Publishers.

2

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION

Looking to save money on gas? With gas prices continuing to rise, why spend money filling up your tank and wasting time on a lengthy commute? With two convenient plant locations in Bullitt County, Publishers Printing Company is a practical solution.

3

SET SCHEDULE & SHIFT PREMIUM

We are continuing to grow and advance in our industry. Being on a set schedule with a stable company means you can budget your expenses more effectively. Additionally, employees who work 2nd and 3rd shift receive an additional 10% on their hourly pay. Although overtime is not guaranteed, if an employee is required to work overtime during the week, anything over 8 hours in a day is time and a half. Weekend overtime (anything over 40 hours) is time and a half and Sundays are double time.

4

MOVIN' ON UP

We take pride in our advancement opportunities at Publishers Printing Company. Advancement is based on performance, ability and future potential. With a variety of departments and positions there are many possibilities and career opportunities available.

5

SAFETY

We encourage employees to participate in our Safety Incentive Program which allows employees the opportunity to win extra money throughout the year. Additionally, employees may also take advantage of several company sponsored training programs. Our Certified EMTs, Fire Brigade, and Safety Committee receive bonuses for their services each January.

6

Cutting Edge Technology and Training

Employees at Publishers are provided with on-the-job training for skill upgrades. After meeting specific guidelines, select employees are recognized by Master Printers of America as a craftsman/craftswoman in their trade.

7

Tradition and Family Values

Publishers Printing Company is one of the few remaining family owned printing companies serving the magazine industry. Brothers Nicholas X. Simon and Michael J. Simon represent the fifth generation of family ownership and continue today to provide the level of service and stability people have come to expect.

8

We Care About Our Community

At Publishers we take great pride in our quality of printing, customer service, and employees. We also care about giving back to our community. Publishers Printing Company and our dedicated employees donate time and money to many charities and local organizations to help make Bullitt County and surrounding areas a better place.

9

Company Events

Several company-wide events take place each year. Free or discounted tickets are available to Churchill Downs, Derby Dinner Playhouse, Louisville Zoo, train rides, circus and much more. We also offer a Wellness Program and a monthly discount off membership at the YMCA.

10

Meet New People

With over 1,400 employees between our two facilities, Publishers Printing Company is a great place to meet new people.

